Diane McPeak, Beth Farnham and Roxanne Proctor take a break between classes. Tom Oddo, Barry Edison, and Scott Novotny stop to talk with Rene Rein. Jim Strub takes time to ponder about life in general.

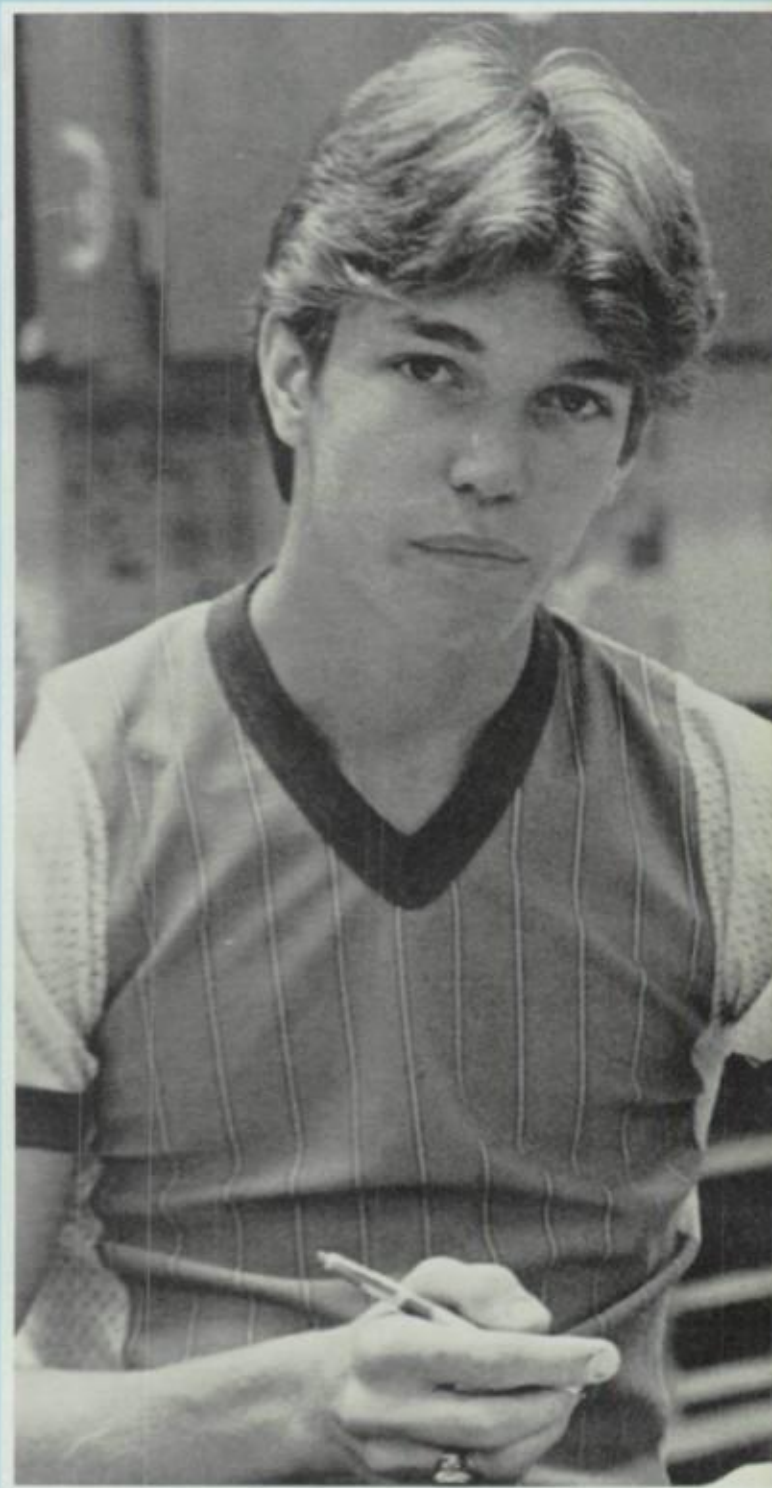

Learning Could be Exciting

Barb Morgan: The sidewalks are so crowded that you can't take your time between classes to talk to your friends because you have to hurry to class. Debbie Babcock: It's exciting being in such a big school because you get to meet so many new and different students. Mr. Also: It's the best school I have ever been associated with.

Students gained Knowledge in many Different areas

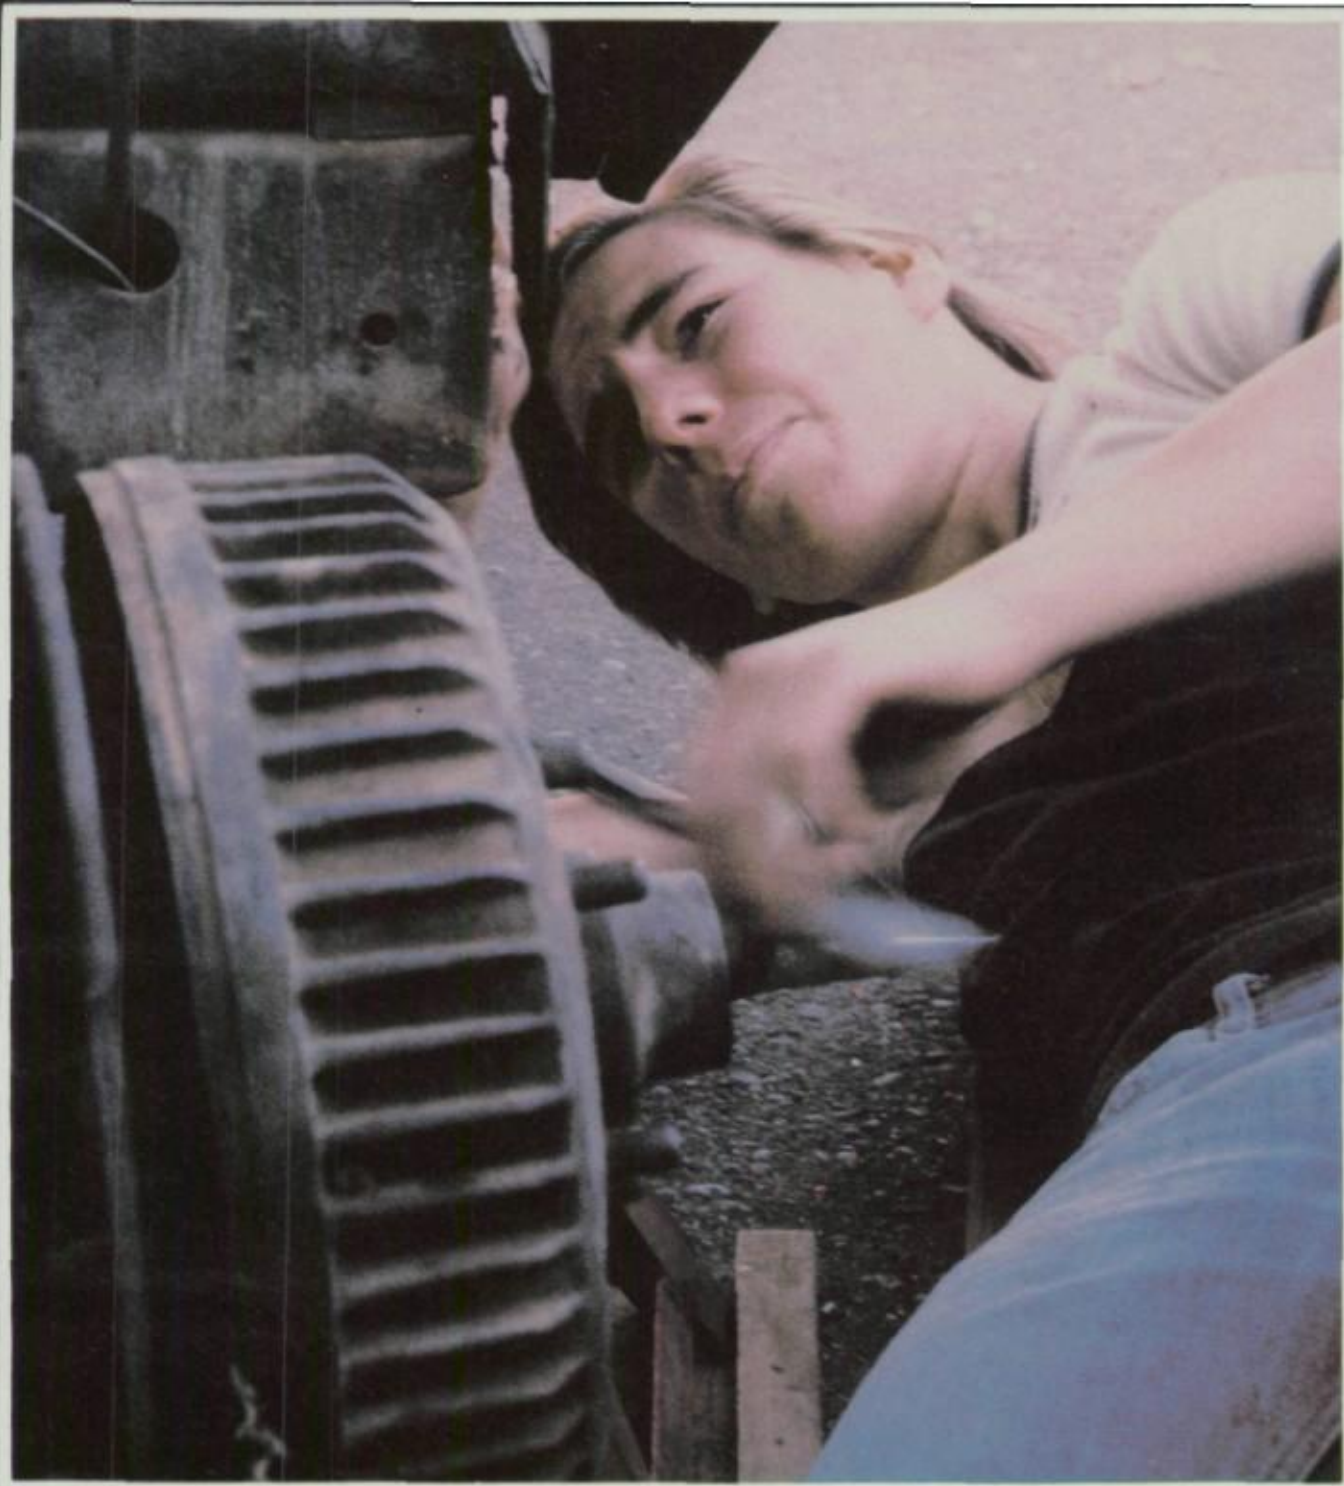

Mrs. Dubinbaum: It is a joy for me to have the opportunity to develop the wonderful vocal and musical talents of the students of G.H.S. The administration has been most supportive of the goals of the music department. The community has shown tremendous appreciation of the achievements of the music department.

Beth Morrison: There are so many people and I wish I could get to know them all.

Teri McCann: I'm glad this school is crowded because there's more cute guys. Mr. Howard: It's been a spirited year with a fantastic bunch of people.

Lunch provides students With time to socialize

Joyce Best: There are too many seniors and not enough freshman. Susan Mallek: The class of '82 is the biggest and most exciting. Della Badgett: The classes are so crowded that it makes it hard to concentrate.

Clockwise: Students enjoy the opportunity to fraternize during lunch. Travis Rogers grabs a quick bite to eat. Shelly Davis stops to smile. Kip Kovac and Margo Magnusen display their school spirit. Chris Lehman and Carren Chalfin seem to enjoy high school. Wendy Bosler, dressed in green and gold, supports the Demons.

Spirited Students Participate

Faye Carlisle: It's great to have so many people that get involved, but more should get involved. Melanie Williams: I like it crowded because I get to meet a lot of people.

Students enjoy a variety Of school wide activities

Clockwise - Carla Balsamo cheers on the football team. Kathy McCament and Sandi Stubbings laugh at fellow students. Wes Pensinger sets to serve the tennis ball. Eric Schultz displays his talent. Greenway's football team demonstrates individual talent.

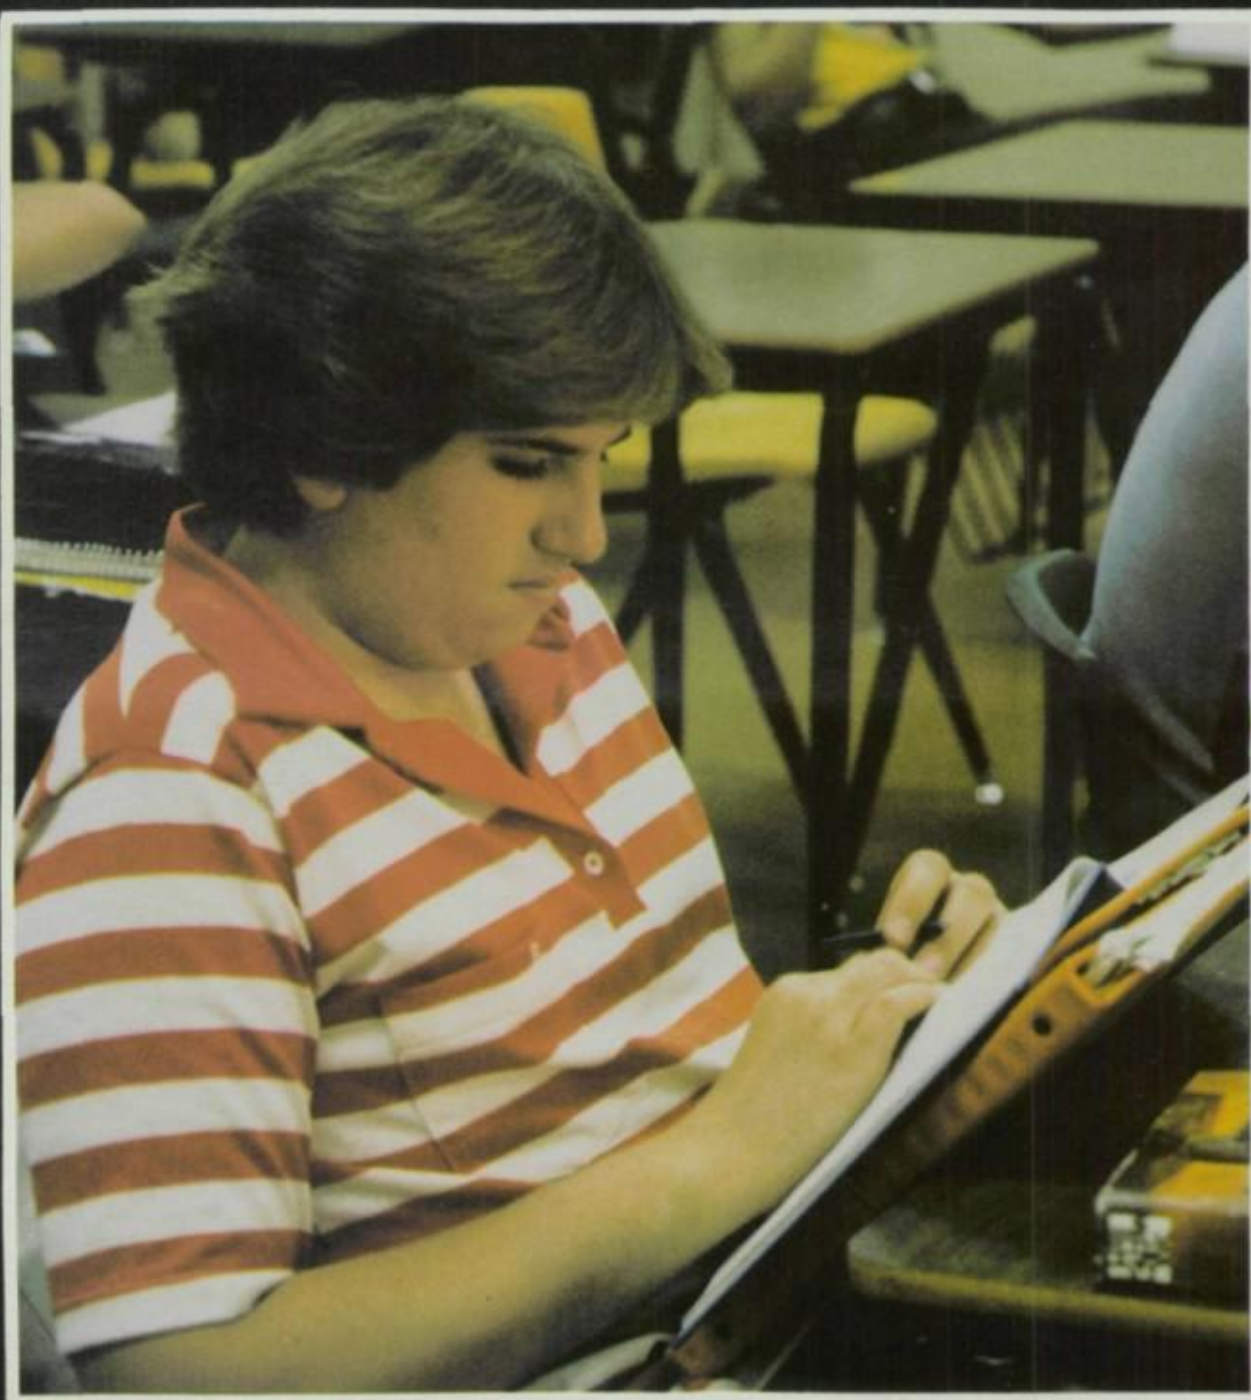

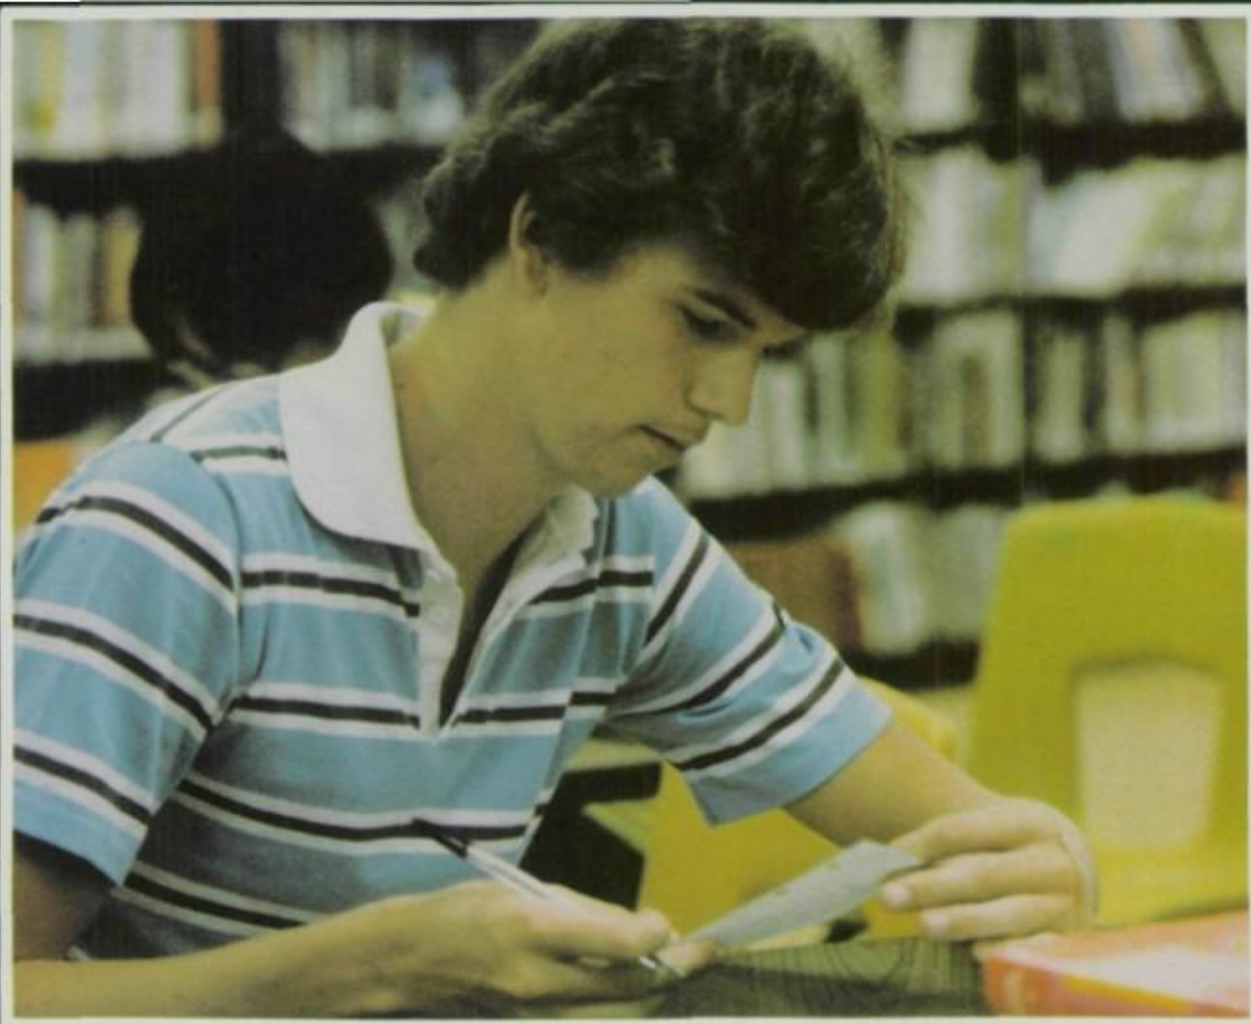

Mrs. Sears: Our student body has accepted the large number of new students and has gone out of its way to make them feel at home. Brian LaCorte: The spirit here at Greenway is outstanding, no matter what activities any of us are involved in our school's students are the most exciting and involved.

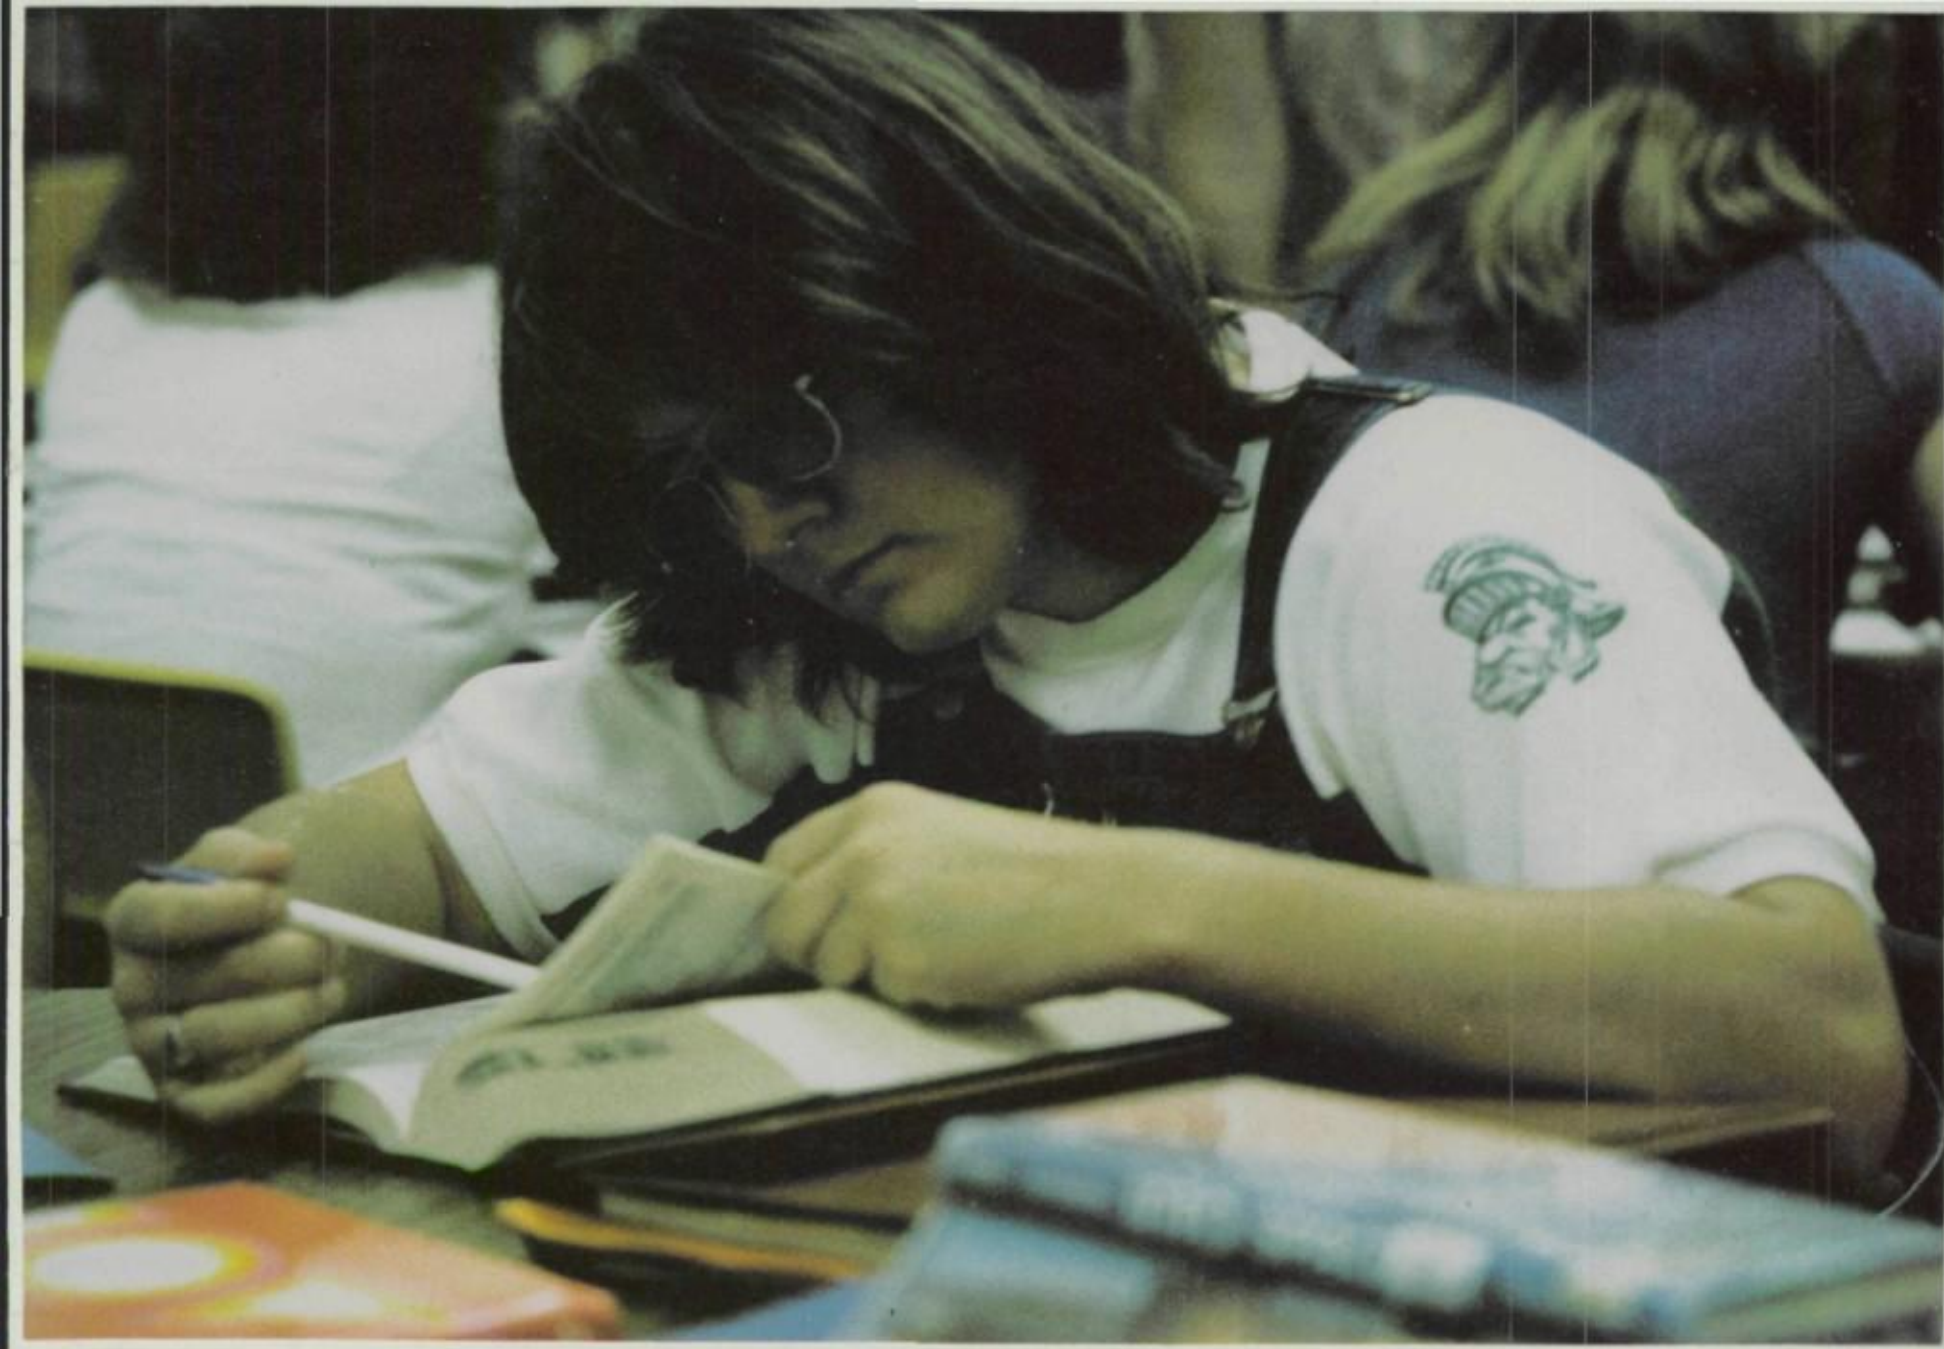

Thoughts Of future Are made

Mr. Sterrett: One of the advantages of the school being crowded is that it creates excitement in trying to stay on the sidewalks when classes change. Eve Barrett: A person's high school years are the most challenging and exciting. Greenway's spirit and enthusiasm have helped to make my high school years the very best. Eric Schultz: The more people, the more audience. Rayenell Snead: There are some really bizarre people walking around campus that keep you on your toes.

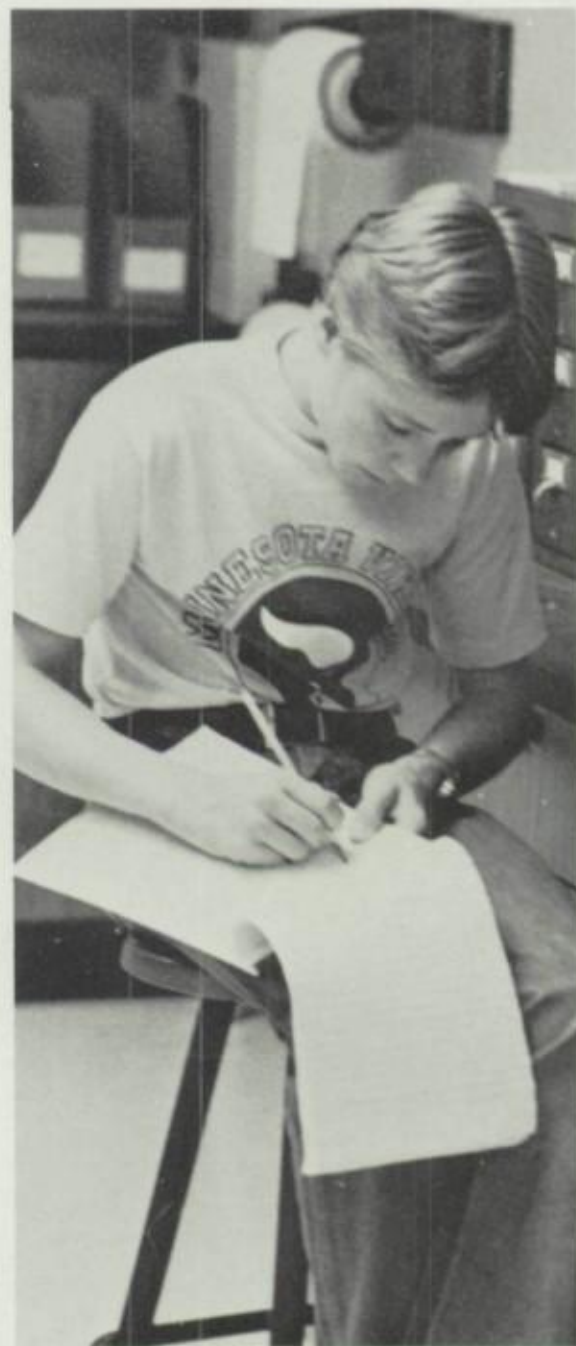

Clockwise - Robin Garrett works on her needle work. Glen Pedersen stops to think before continuing to work. Neil Walls focuses on his English. Todd Harris makes good use of the library.

Spirit Week; supercharged with tremors of excitement

A lot of people participated in the events during Spirit Week, which was filled with fun and excitement. Activities included Little Kids Day, Hawaiian Day, Halloween, Toga Day, and the traditional Green and Gold Day.

Lunch time activities were the water balloon toss; pie throw, where the winners of a raffle got to put a pie into the face of one of the senior pom girls; the tug o' war between classes; a wet T-shirt contest featuring boys, with the winning boy earning the title of class stud; and the penny hunt, where contestants had to find a penny in a pan of flour using their mouths. Spirit Week was exciting and enthralling for everyone.

Homecoming eve exploded with fireworks, floats and of course the much awaited ceremony; royalty. Each class elected their own candidates, while everyone was allowed to vote for King and Queen. This year's Homecoming theme was "Go Hawaiiin", which was sponsored by the Junior Class. Students participated with much enthusiasm in Homecoming activities. These activities included the presentation of floats which added color to the evening. Indeed Homecoming was a time to remember.

Varsity pride shows

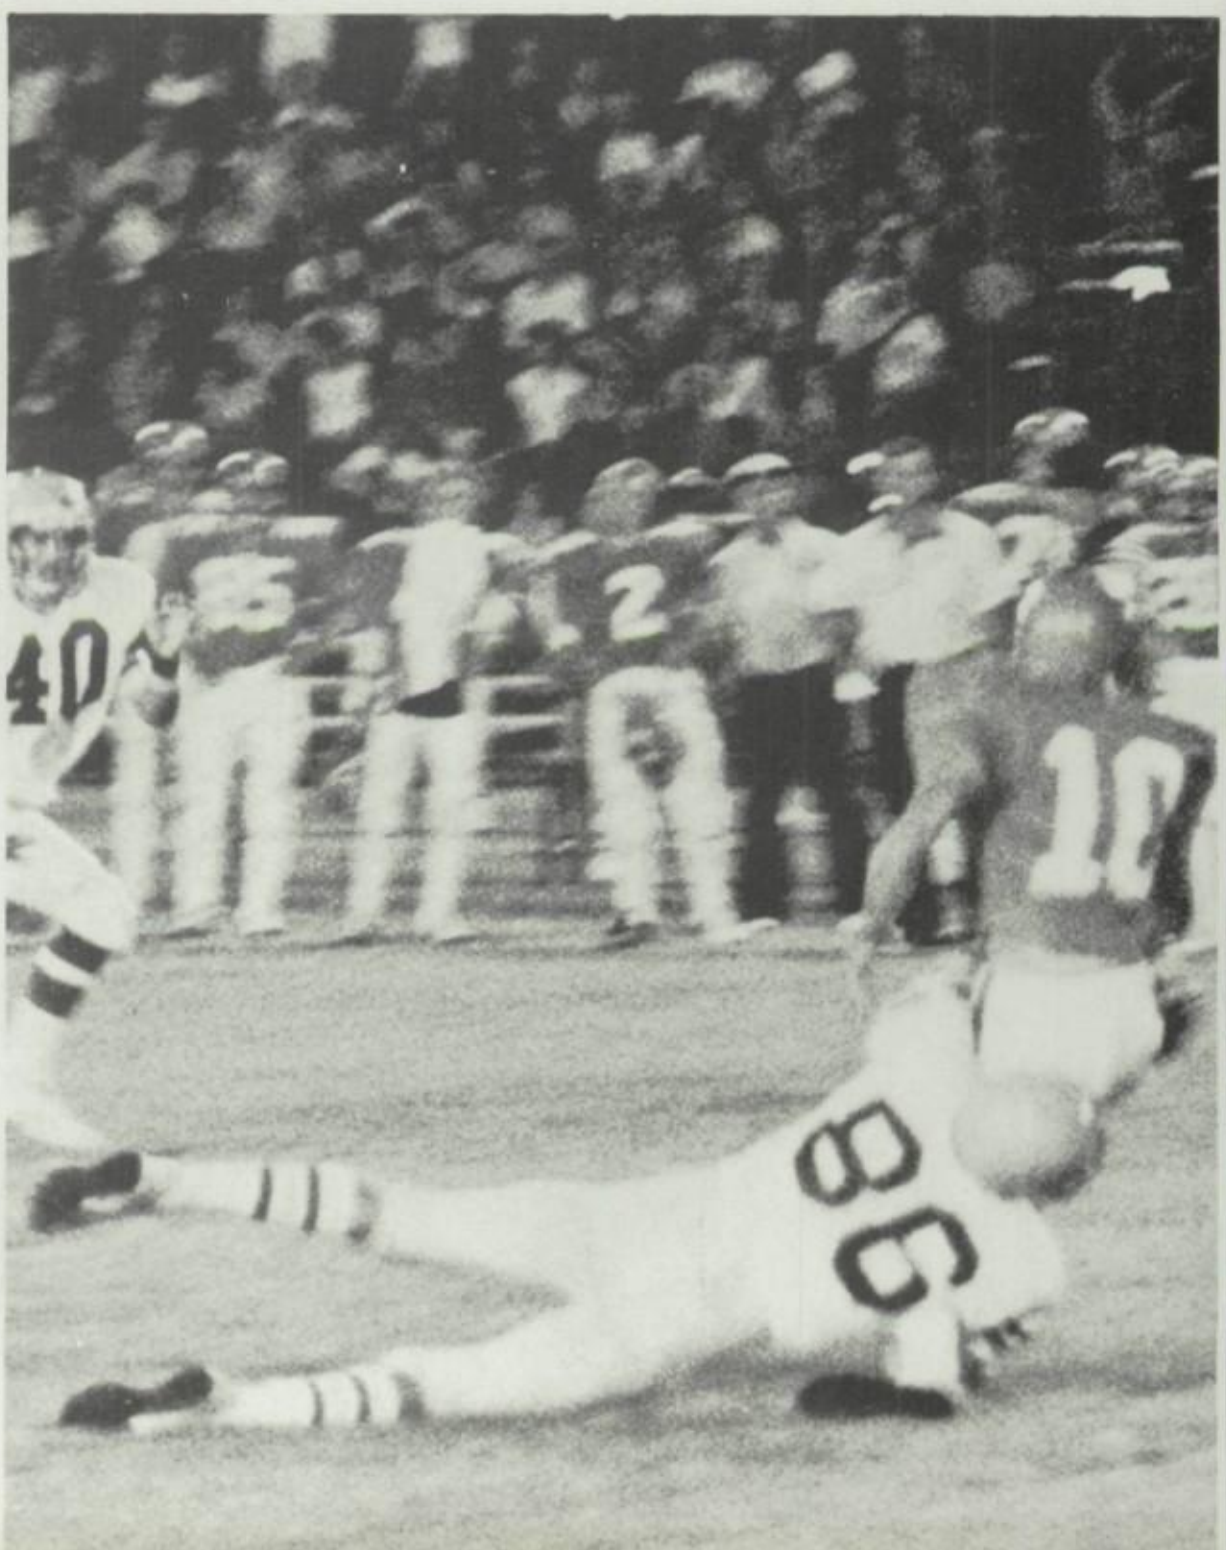

Greenway's football season was the most demanding season in recent years. Finishing with an exciting last quarter victory over Agua Fria was most satisfying for the players and coaches. This year's team grew in many ways and they believed in themselves at the final gun of the season. Winning football is important but helping young men develop their poise and confidence, pride in themselves and their undertakings, teaching them to give that little extra effort are the real objectives of teaching winning football.

John Assaf watches the offensive maneuvers.

Greg Adam's athletic ability is shown here by making a solid tackle against Cortez.

The Frosh Gold Football Team finished their season with another undefeated record, (7-0-1). Head Coach Ken Corley said, "Although the team had its ups and downs, the boys improved tremendously throughout the season." Coach Corley also mentioned, "Being small does not eliminate them from football, it's more of what is inside them: and having this good year will influence Greenway's football in the future. With the desire and some hard work, they can go on to play varsity ball.

Frosh Green puts forth efforts with enthusiasm

The freshman Green Football Team ended up with a season mark of 2-6. Although their record did not show it, the Frosh Green played with much improvement each game out. Head Coach Ted Blake said that their improvement each week was outstanding. He went on to say, "Even though they had a losing record, their attitude was a winning one." Blake feels this team should do a lot better by the time they are seniors.

"This year's Cross Country team was an outstanding squad," said Coach Giddings. "We were undefeated only to see everything collapse with the injury of two of the team's top runners. Bob Johnson, fractured his foot, and Dan Goodrich, was too sick to run." The team was fortunate enough to have three excellent runners, Johnson, Klein and Goodrich. Thanks to Klein the team was not left in a bind. Highlights of the year were getting invited to the Tempe Meet and finishing a respectable seventh. The team also won four medals in the novice race, at the Thunderbird Invitation. They were ranked Sixth in state by the final poll.

This year's varsity volleyball team played respectively throughout the season with key wins over Thunderbird and Shadow Mountain. The team played hard and lost a few close games. The win over Shadow Mountain was one of two consecutive wins that closed the Demons' season on a good note. The winning effort earned them a spot in the playoffs.

Stacy Pilch shows style in her serve, as Sue Hoffner awaits the opponent's return.

This year's Junior Varsity accomplished some things that a JV team should. They prepared players with experience and skills that proved of value towards the end of the season. The Demon team came around in the latter part of the season playing progressively better each game.

Wrestlers Perform With Style

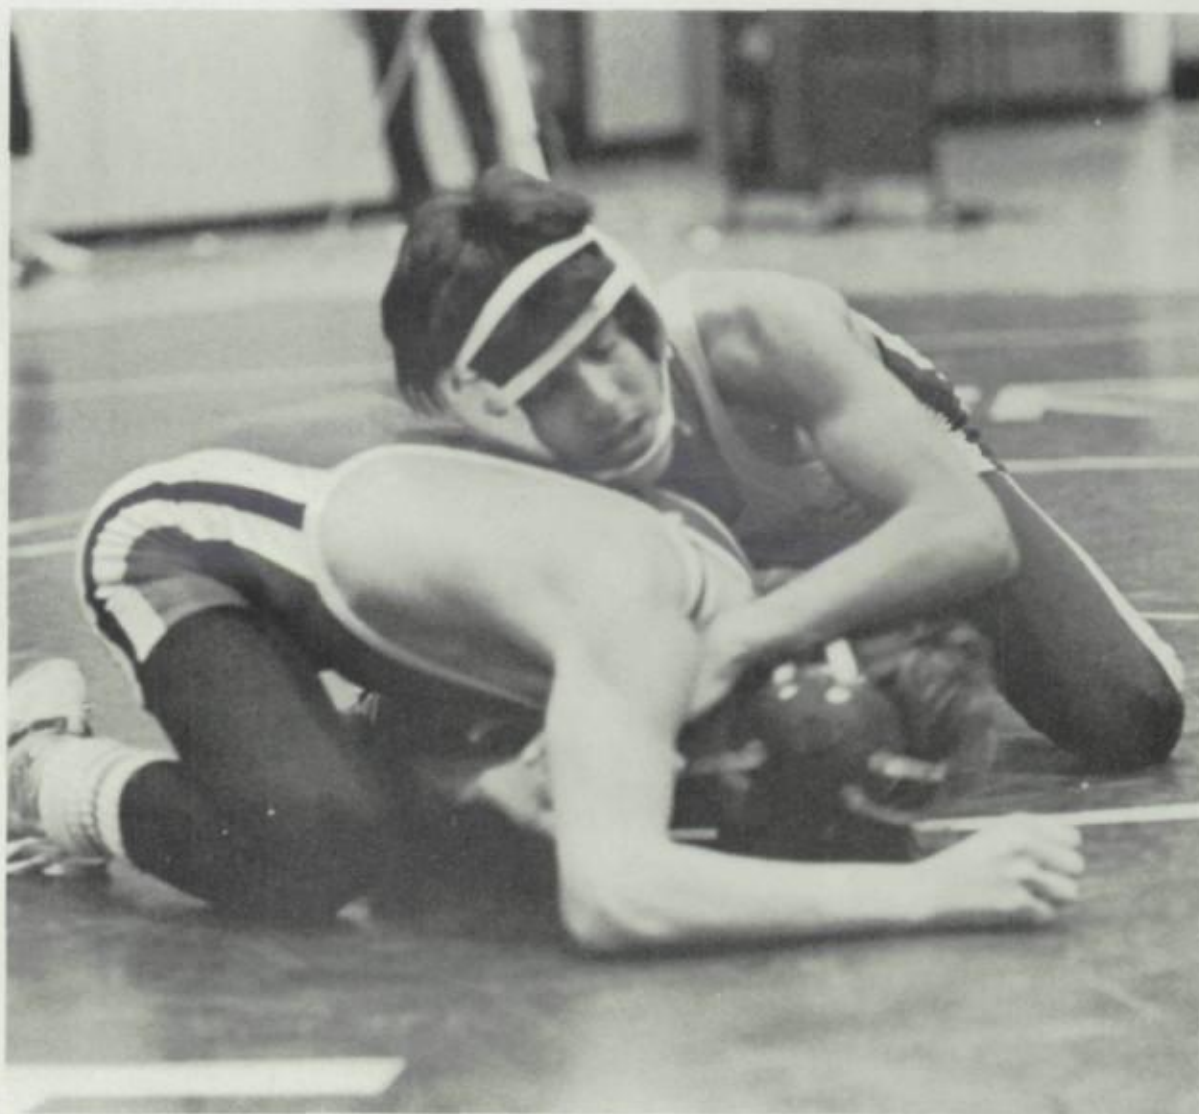

This year's Junior Varsity Wrestling team, coached by Robbie Roberson, had a very good season. The team was composed primarily of sophomores, which was a change from the usual upperclassmen team. This change posed a bright future for next year's team, as many of the wrestlers would return. Outstanding individuals were, Mike Stone, Tom Shores, Jim Siegler, Brad Allison and Jim Carlson.

The J.V. Basketball team, coached by Craig Darrington, rolled to a very successful season. The final overall record stood at 13 and 6 for second place in the conference. The J.V. Squad started slow, but managed to regroup and win 9 games in a row. The overall strength of the team seemed to be their desire to improve and their ability to play hard. Many of the boys have potential to become excellent varsity players in the future.

Softball Goes To Divisionals

The 1979-80 season was highlighted by the Softball Demon's ability to bounce back after a constant flurry of injuries and setbacks. The team needed all its depth to pull out victories, which allowed the Demons to move on to divisional play." There were many strong points this season. Experience, good depth, good speed, outstanding pitching, hitting, defense, spirit, and togetherness were all apart of it. The final record of the season was 16 wins 3 loses.

Leaders of Today Striving for Tomorrow

The student government has worked to produce a proud Greenway High. Involvement in the Homecoming and Spirit Week made these two traditional events very successful. As a group, these students worked to help the community in the can food drive and adopt a family. As a concerned group, Greenway's government used the slogan WE ARE PROUD to better the spirit and pride in the school. As a closing for the year Greg Milligan summed it up, "I think that 79-80 has been the best year that Greenway High has ever had. I am proud of student council and very proud of Greenway."

COE helps students Perfect working skills

COE was a supervised work-study program that taught students about different types of office work. During the year, Mrs. Lamb, sponsor of the club, placed each member in one of the various jobs available. These included work for banks, real estate, dental, medical and legal offices as well as many other choices. She acquired student evaluations from employers every quarter to use with grades. The girls received two credits for COE; one for their jobs and one in class. COE was a good reference for members to use in the future.

Language club learns culture

Spangerlatch consisted of students from foreign language classes and was run by Mrs. Bradley and Mr. Kreitzman. At club meetings, members of Spanger-latch discussed different foreign societies and the cultures of their people.

Merideth Clark looks relaxed as she watches Christmas activities.

Gail Rohkohl cleans up after Christmas party.

Speech travels to tournament

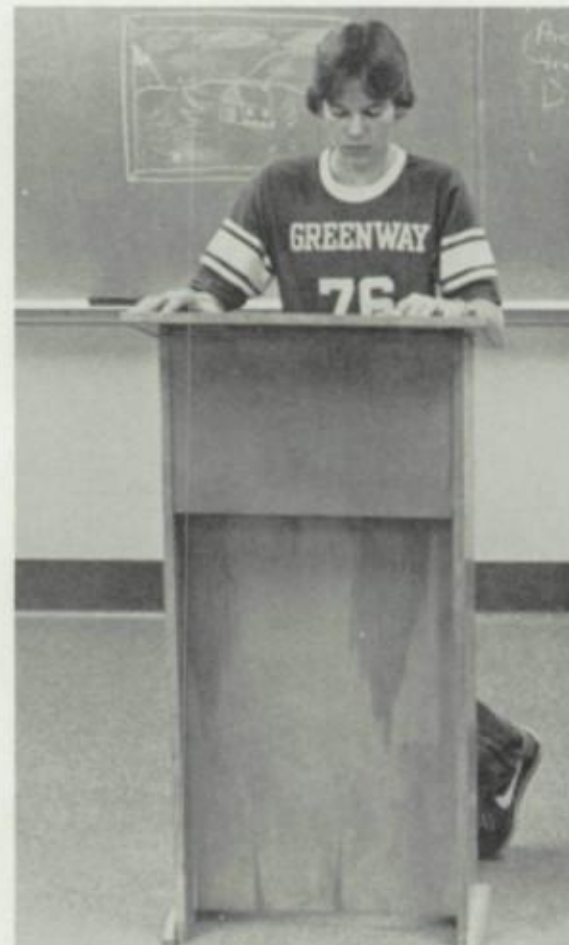

Speech Club was sponsored by Marcia Lee. The purpose of the club was for the members to attend tournaments and compete with other schools with their speeches. There were the District tournament and State and finally Novice, which were the beginners tournament.

Mike Mulich practices for tournament.

Patty Russell demonstrates her speech to the members of the Speech Club.

TRAGYC

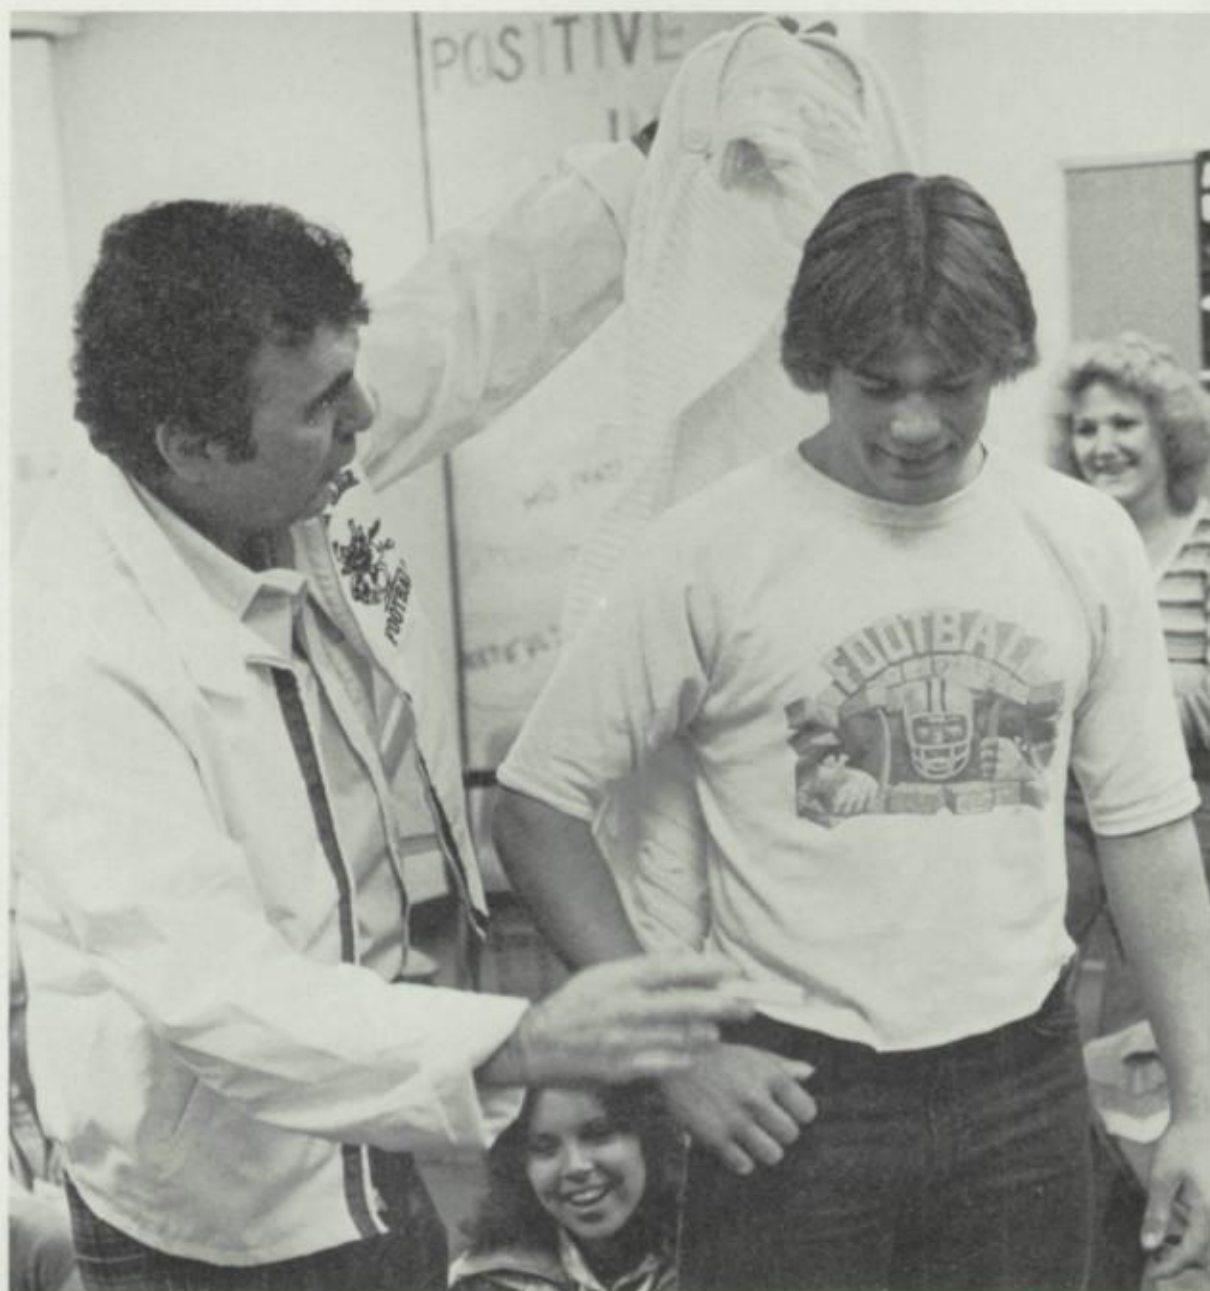

Promotes car safety

The Greenway TRAGYC Club, sponsored by Steve Daly, is a very important club. It deals with one of the biggest problems among young people today, that of traffic safety.

Greenway's Tragyc Club takes a great deal of pride in trying to in-still knowledge of traffic safety in the community and elementary schools. Some of the means by which Tragyc achieves this is by going to elementary schools and making the young people aware of traffic safety through the showing of movies and skits, as well as sponsoring a bicycle rodeo.

Tragyc also tries to reach the older individuals by stressing the importance of wearing a seat belt and discouraging driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Tragyc members also attend conventions, such as the one in Tucson early this year. The clubs share ideas with other schools in the state.

Coach Daly and Kelly Epley demonstrate the Batman and Robin skit at one of the club meetings.

Tragyc Club enjoys discussion which concerns upcoming fund raising project.

Junior Robin Bovingdon listens while the club plans to go to a nearby grade school.

Club officers - Acting Treasurer Carrie Whitehouse; Secretary Donna Klumb; Vice President Lori Golson; and President Bill Riedel.

Top Row: Carrie Whitehouse, John Vantussenbroek, Lori Golson, Bruce Mayberry, Loretta Gillespie, Robin Bovingdon, Lori Brinegar and Caryn Balsamo. Middle Row: Mike Edwards, Ken Engle, Kelly Epley, Barry Spencer, Cheryl Mackey, Bill Reidel, Denise Gillespie and Mike Garner. Bottom Row: Charmaine Hegarty, Karla Ohlin, Donna Klumb, Amy Hamill, Coach Daly, Renne Hyes, Lisa Meek, and Sherri Bouley.

Dave Smith - Assistant Principal

Burton Miller - Assistant Principal

Craig Darlington - Dean of Students

Robert Sterrett - Principal

The principals are responsible for everything that happens at Greenway. The entire educational program is their responsibility as well as public relations. They hire and supervise the teachers. They are in charge of supervising and disciplining the students. Everything that happens is ultimately brought back to the principals.

School Board decides District wide policies

Elected by the community, the five board members are responsible for establishing the policies by which the entire Glendale district is run. During the past year, they made some important decisions affecting Greenway High School, its programs and students. The superintendent and the Greenway High School Administration, hired by the board, were responsible for operating the school in keeping with those decisions.

GLENDAL UNION HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARD MEMBERS. Seated: Dr. Craig Trueblood, President Mrs. Anne Schulz and Clerk Dr. Donald Voss. Standing: Mr. Gordon Wagner and Mr. Richard Stapley.

The Past: A year to recollect

Eileen Horning: I'll remember the long nights studying for those awesome physics tests but also all the fun I had.

Dee Petersen: I'll remember the students and teachers. They both helped me a lot.

Teresa Brannoch: I'll remember goofing off with my friends.

Friends throughout a crowd

Gene Ames: It was a good experience... it will be hard to move on...

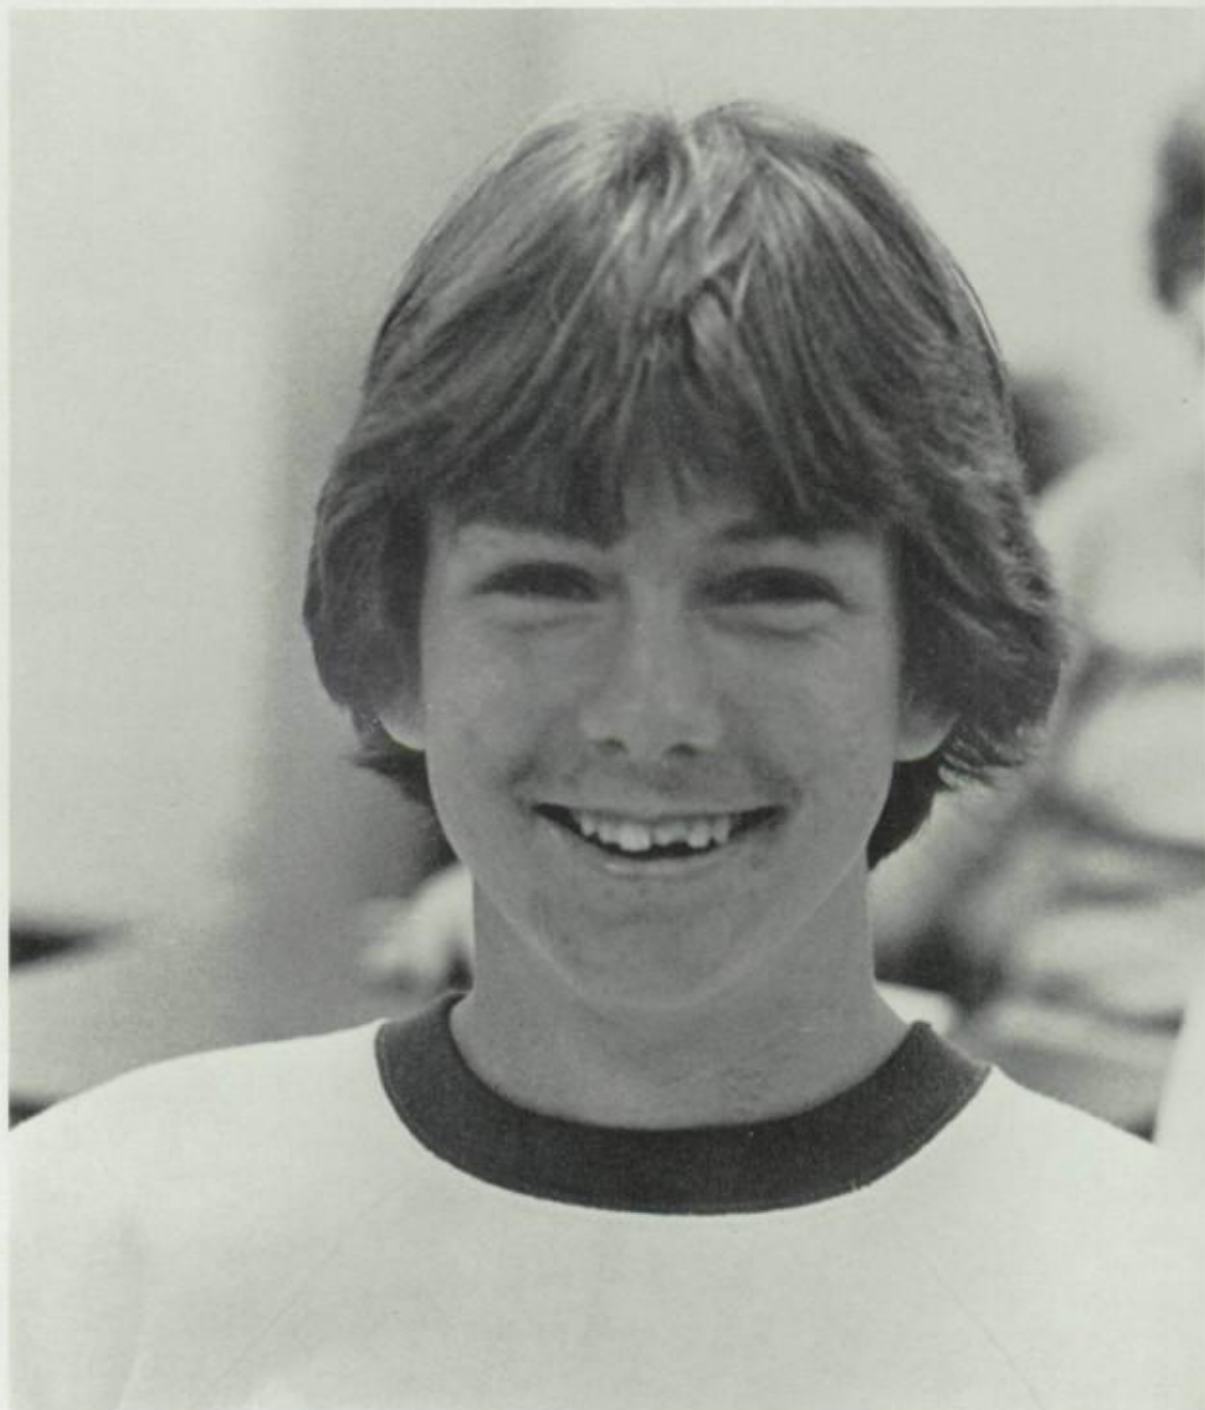

Maryann Laudisi: I met some very special friends. I just want to thank them for being there.

Tony D'ippolito: I appreciate the way in which teachers have helped me succeed in life.

Bert Anzini: I enjoyed Football, Mr Hammer's naptime, and Shelley.

Clockwise from left: Chris Denning, Natillie Brehm, Lori Williams, Bob Bunton, Sherry Artzer, Kevin Bouser.

“Spirit” It keeps Growing

Sam Loss: Greenway has the kind of spirit other schools desire.

Todd Dougherty: I enjoyed the great school pride of the students during my final year.

Rob Aceto: When I think of Greenway, I think of my Greenway hat...

Each person on the staff was responsible for a particular section or page segment. The 1979-80 Demonian will be entered in a Yearbook Competition and will compete on the National level. The class was made up of twenty-eight students which worked very hard to compete each deadline. Much pride was taken to and put in each page for everyone to enjoy.

Assistant Editors Wendy Schuff and Terry Bevacqua and Editor Karen Wright smile as the 1979-80 book finishes with success.

Cindy Bailey listens with interest.

Burnie was always swinging by the branches before deadlines.

Photographers: Steve Barton, Laurie Prill, Mark Lindberg, Kathy Furtmann, Dave Duane, Rodney French.

Sports Editor Teri Ashworth begins to explain a brilliant idea of hers for a section.

Photographer Rodney French files proof sheets.

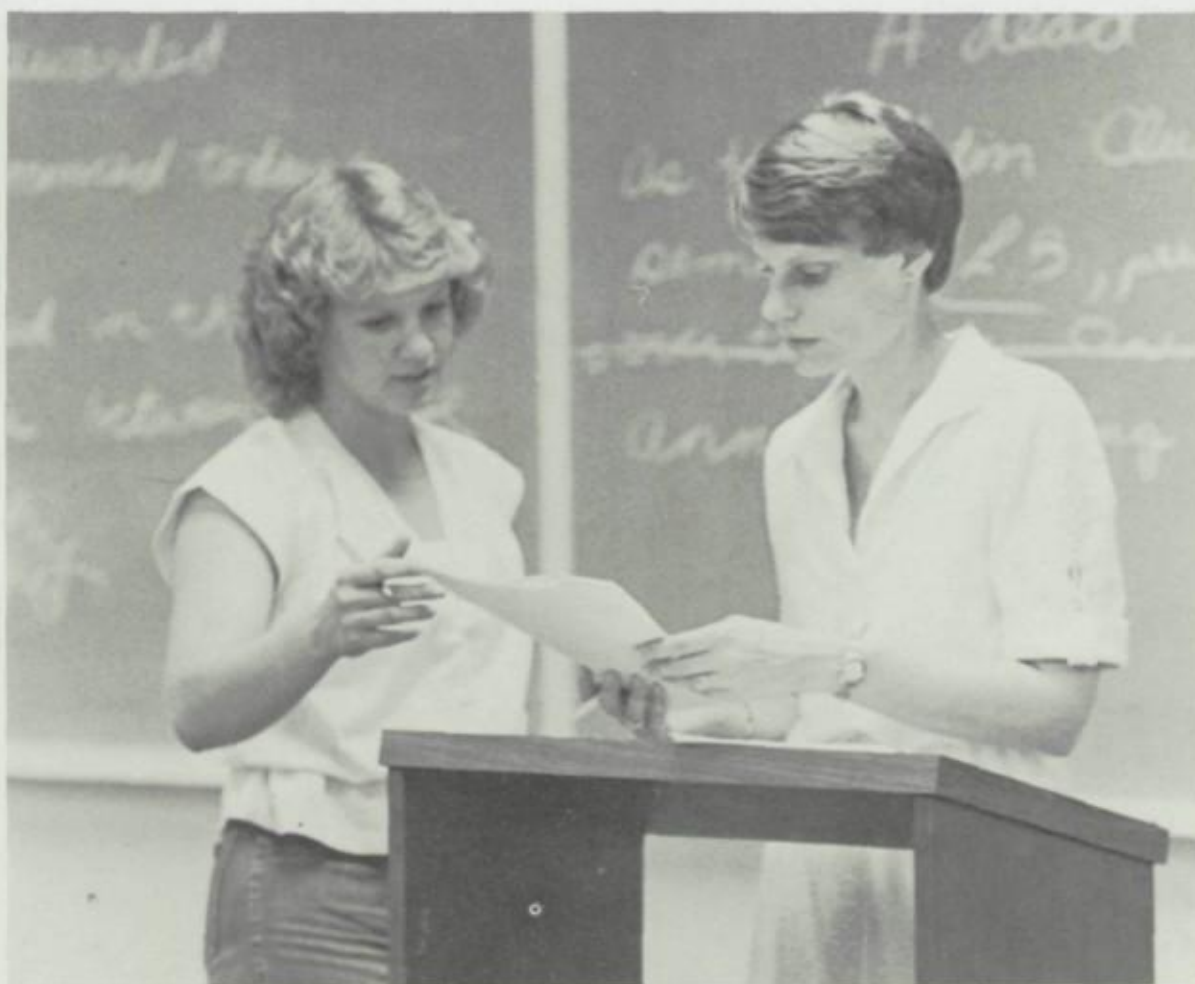

Junior Scott Meyers shows great concentration while working on one of the class sections.

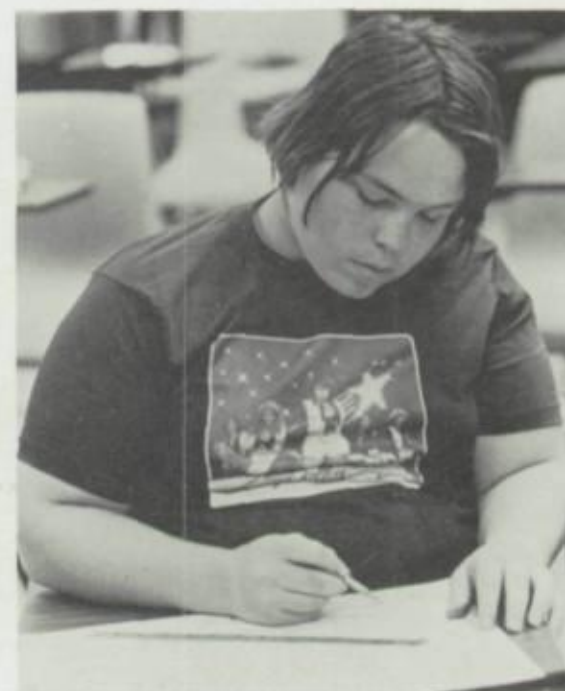

Photographer Mark Lindberg gives a casual glance.

Ed Collins re-counts the picas on his rough draft.

Parent Action Club serves GHS

"The PAC have proven to be a group of people who are truly dedicated to meeting their objectives," commented Robert Sterret. First Row: Mrs. Baget, Mrs. Denning, Mrs. Domers, Mrs. Kays Second Row: Mr. Miller, Mr. Estes, Mrs. Francis, Mrs. Powers, Mr. Kottman, Mr. Hatch, and Mr. Sterret.

The Parent Action Club's main objective was to support Greenway High School and students by services rendered. They raised money to be spent on equipment and facilities used by the student body. They contributed some of the money they raised to club organizations on campus as well as donated scholarship funds.

In the past six years the Parent Action Club has raised over $15,000 which went for various equipment such as the marquee and a baby grand piano. This year PAC raised funds to provide adequate equipment for GHS' new auditorium.

The phrases and quotes came from the following sources: The book of Proverbs from the Holy Bible.

WELL I'M GLAD YOU SAVE ME MY OWN PAGE. IT WAS FUN IN ENGLISH
THIS YEAR EVEN THOUGH YOU ACTED LIKE A WITCH TO ME OFF AND ON. (JUST KIDDING)
WELL HAVE FUN
THIS SUMMER AND
DON'T DO ANYTHING
I WOULD AND IF YOU DO NAME IT AFTER
ME. RANDY VASQUEZ
ALIAS (STUD)

Dee

It is sure hard to believe you a senior I thought that at the most you were a Soph.

Sorry about your grade
but I have to do my best.

Good Luck in Life

Love ya

To DEE, Thank for your smile and attention during our 4th hr.
Don't forget - TANSTAAFC!

Ms:

Brinkman

Dee

It's been nice knowing you. I wish I would of got to know you better. I hope we get together for one of the cutest girls I know!
I will always be ~~here~~ here
if you need me.

Love ya always Mike A.

Dee,
Well, I'm sure glad I got to know you during the summer Program and I'm even gladder I got to see more of you here at Greenwood.
I wish you happiness in whatever the future holds for you. Much Luck!

See,
I really am glad that I have known you for so long. Have a great summer and take care, you're a real great person. Maybe I'll bump into you somewhere. Best wishes!
Love always,

You're a real You're self cu
Miss you after see you this good

Dee
I really don't know you that well, but you've been nice to me all year, and I thank you for that.
Since you're a big senior I won't be seeing you at the bus stop any more. So I'll see you later. friend
PHill

Dear
You're a really special girl.
I hope I see you after graduation and in the future.
Love,

It was nice having you in Preston's class - hope you have a good time this summer -

Wendy Weyner

Dee,
Hey I finally got to finish it after 3 days.

Well, I hope you had a good 4 years at Greenway. How long have we known each other? Since we were sophomores I think. Mr. Mueller Prieto
Ed. Jake Carr + Be Good.
Love ya.

Dee, it has been Math really fun in Math this year. It was a blast giving Tom heck all year in the future that I have all that you will have ever need and I hope for you.
everything goes well! Have a great summer and watch out for the guys.
Keep your sweet smile.
and beautiful person.
you may go wherever to come. Lots of love the future. Lots of luck in the years

Dee
It was nice having you in my class this year. I hope you do good in college graduation.
and have a great summer.

Dear _____,

I forgot your name, but I still like you! Well, it looks like were going to graduate! (FINALLY) Now its time to decide what to do in the comming years. Just think, were known each other for six years - what a waste! ((KIDDING))
I want you to know how much I care and just how happy I am to have you as my friend. You are the best anyone could have. For years you were talking about moving, and it looks like Im the one.
that is. (THATS THE PITS!) Im going to miss you; your smile, your humor, company, I could go on and on as I like everything about you.
You are the best friend I've had or ever will have. I hope you'll be able to work with children as I know how much it means to you.
I wish you all the best as thats what you deserve! Its hard for me to say it but I love you as a sister and friend, the best of both. You can't realize how much I'll miss you! I'll be thinking of you everyday! Take care, and good luck in the future and in everything you do!

Love Always
